A limited edition (1 of 9) 12" x 18" archival color photograph of the Regis Quad by Regis '05 parent Alice Jacob

L6 Legal Eagle meets Owlet/Lunch with Patrick J. Fitzgerald '78, Esq.

Appointed by President George W. Bush in 2001, Regis '78 alum Patrick J. Fitzgerald served as the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois. Throughout his career he has led numerous high-profile investigations and prosecutions including significant fraud, civil rights, organized crime, narcotics and national security cases. As Assistant U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York, he was lead counsel in the investigation, prosecution and trial of U.S. v. Osama bin Laden, et al. (bombing of the U.S. embassies in Kenya and Tanzania), and U.S. v. Omar Abdel Rahman (1993 WTC attack). A graduate of Amherst College and Harvard Law School, now in private practice, Mr. Fitzgerald takes the rare opportunity to lunch with your Regian and one friend/sibling, on a mutually agreed upon date prior to December 15, 2015 in New York City to share his professional and personal experiences. Truly an amazing mentoring opportunity (NY NY)

L7 Rao's Table for Two

Sure, you've heard about Rao's, but getting a reservation at this iconic New York hot spot is impossible. With ten tables and just one seating nightly in this legendary East Harlem jewel, this may be the most difficult reservation in NYC, but you've landed a table for two on Wednesday, July 29, 2015 at 7:00 p.m. sharp. The date and time are non-negotiable. Item includes this much sought-after reservation and $300 cash for this cash-only restaurant. Mangia! (455 East 114th Street, NY NY)

L8 The Winged Foot Golf Club Golf Outing

Joseph C. Dey said, "The very name 'Winged Foot' has a sort of magic for those who know the club from afar. To them, it stands for competitive golf at its highest level - a place where history was made by Bobby Jones and others. But for those who know Winged Foot intimately, it is much more fun and meaningful than a place of big occasions. It is a steady heartbeat of golfing pleasure and sportsmanship, where the game is the thing and where many great matches and tall tales have been spun. Winged Foot is, in sum, a temple to the spirit of golf." The U.S. Open Championship will return to Winged Foot in 2020, but you can take your shot at it first. You and two friends may join Regis '09 parent Charlie Millard for a round at this iconic golf club. Charlie will point out where Jack Nicklaus four-putted, where Billy Casper laid-up on a par three to win the Open, where Phil Mickelson sliced his drive, and where Bobby Jones sank his putt. Package includes lunch and caddie fees on a mutually agreed upon date prior to November 14, 2015 (Mamaroneck NY)

L9 Tchoukball Extravaganza

Tchoukball is the high-energy game made famous at Regis by Coach John Donodeo P '02. The students lost to the faculty last year after winning three years in a row. Can the Regians win back the title? Bragging rights are on the line when the students play a six-on-six rematch game against Regis faculty members. Can the Sons of Regis outscore Team Tocchet's Faculty Ringers? Coach will be on hand to referee, ensuring that USTA rules are enforced, while Dr. Tocchet will provide pizza and soda to the winners (and losers) after the game. Upper Gym game scheduled for Friday, May 8, 2015 at 3:15 p.m. Team shirts provided for the Sons of Regis players. A total of twelve Regians needed to play (Regis High School, NY NY)

L10 ESPN Baseball Tonight Experience

For the baseball enthusiast, grab a front row seat as you join sportscaster and Regis '88 alum Jon "Boog" Sciambi for a tour of the ESPN Studios in Bristol, Connecticut, followed by your inside ticket to view a live broadcast of Baseball Tonight on a mutually agreed upon date prior to December 31, 2015; for a group of up to four people (Bristol CT)

L11 The Chapel

A 16" x 20" oil on canvas painting of a student playing the piano in the Regis Chapel by Regis '96 parent Dr. Jane Haher Izquierdo

L12 Playa del Carmen Romantic Getaway

Escape the tri-state hustle and bustle to relax in one of the hottest 2015 vacation destinations, Playa del Carmen in the Riviera Maya. Your romantic twosome will enjoy four days/three nights in a Deluxe Room at the beautiful all inclusive Occidental Grand Xcaret located less than an hour from Cancun International Airport and the ancient Mayan ruins in Tulum. The resort features 11 international restaurants and 10 bars to fit every mood and every occasion. With all meals and drinks included, feel free to sample each venue! Enjoy all the Riviera Maya has to offer right in the resort compound including winding river channels, free form pools, and a private beach with powder soft white sand on a quiet cove. Pack your bags and enjoy! Dates are subject to availability and do not include U.S. holidays; valid through December 22, 2015 (Playa del Carmen Mexico)

L13 At Ease! An Insider's Tour of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point with Dr. Gary Tocchet

Skip the Visitor's Center and catch up with Regis' own Dr. Tocchet at the U.S. Military Academy for an insider's tour of the storied campus. A graduate of The Point as well as a former professor of history, this long-time West Pointer will take you to many legendary campus venues, some not open to the public. Stroll through historic halls, marvel at the sports facilities, take in the Military History Museum and enjoy the majestic views while your very own principal shares his unique perspective about the historical significance of the Academy and its role in the shaping of our country. After you and your three guests get a glimpse of the life of a cadet, perhaps Dr. Tocchet will point you in the direction of the admissions office on the way out! Your afternoon will include lunch at a dining venue chosen by your host depending on the date of your visit; either on or off campus. Located just 50 miles from NYC, The Point will be a quick drive for you and your guests, or arrangements can be made if you take the scenic Metro North train ride to the Garrison, New York station. So enjoy the day, enjoy the view and get inspired by your gracious host on a mutually agreed upon date prior to September 30, 2015 (West Point NY)

L14 Here's Cooking at You/Cooking Demonstration at Sugar & Spice Culinary Arts

You and up to 11 guests will join Chef and Regis '15 parent Vivian Flood for a cooking class/dinner at her culinary school, Sugar & Spice Culinary Arts, LLC in Garden City, NY. In her storefront business you will find a professionally outfitted kitchen with a cozy, friendly atmosphere. Chef Vivian has had a 27-year passion for cooking and will design a delicious three-course meal for you and your guests. This unique dinner demonstration and meal will make for an evening that is sure to be remembered. Great for a ladies' night out, parent/son dinner for your Regian and friends, or a unique and cozy interactive couples evening. Also beneficial for college bound Regians, who know the trigonometric identities of "pi", but can't bake one. On a mutually agreed upon date and time, Monday through Friday prior to April 1, 2016. Guests not to exceed 12 people (Garden City NY)

L15 USA Women's Soccer Team/FIFA World Cup Send-off

Two tickets to USA vs. South Korea on Saturday, May 30, 2015; catch the team before they leave for the Women's World Cup in Canada. Package includes two adult tickets plus tickets for two children (ages 5-12) to be escorts to the USA team, VIP parking pass, pregame visit to the field to watch warm-ups, and a U.S. Women's National Soccer Team jersey that will be signed by the whole team (Red Bull Arena, Harrison NJ)

L16 Location, Location, Location

This is one piece of Manhattan real estate whose value continues to increase and, for a Regian, the most sought-after venue for a graduation celebration, business cocktail party or other special event - the Regis Quad. You provide the refreshments and Regis will provide the landmark locale. On a mutually agreed upon date prior to April 1, 2016 (Regis High School, NY NY)

L17 Another Late Night at Regis

An 18" x 24" framed oil on linen painting of a view of the East 84th Street entrance with the Centennial banner at night by Regis '14 parent Christopher Spinelli

L18 Attention Regian Writers, Readers and Thinkers/Lunch with 2014 National Book Award Winner Phil Klay '01

Regis '01 alum Phil Klay, a Dartmouth grad and the holder of a MFA from Hunter College, is the author of Redeployment, a critically acclaimed collection of short stories based on Phil's tour of duty as a member of the U.S. Marine Corps stationed in Iraq from January 2007 to February 2008. In 2014, Klay became the first Regian to receive the National Book Award for fiction and he was also a 2014 Honoree of the National Book Foundation 5 Under 35. Your Regian and two friends or siblings will join Phil on his own turf in NYC as his guests for a lunch filled with discussion on topics ranging from Phil's experiences in the military, to living the writer's life, to how he has been influenced by his education and the people he has met along the way. This is a rare opportunity to share time with someone who is shaping the country's perception of reality through a work of fiction. Bring along copies of Redeployment for a personal autograph. On a mutually agreed upon date valid through December 1, 2015 (NY NY)

L19 Play Where the Pros Play/Merion Golf Club

This is your chance to play on one of America's most storied golf venues, Merion Golf Club, site of the 2013 U.S. Open Championship. Designed by Hugh Wilson, Merion's East Course has played host to more USGA Championships than any course in America and is home to some of its greatest moments. From Bobby Jones' completion of golf's elusive Grand Slam at the 1930 U.S. Amateur to Ben Hogan's awe-inspiring performance and now legendary one-iron on the 72nd hole during the 1950 U.S. Open, the sculpted greens, fairways and treacherous bunkers of Merion have shaped the game. Jack Nicklaus once said, "Acre for acre, [Merion] may be the best test of golf in the world." Experience Merion in a golf outing for three with member, and friend of Regis, Peter Haabestad. Package includes lunch and caddy fees on a mutually agreed upon date prior to November 15, 2015 (Ardmore PA)

L20 AI Sol Luxury Village/Dominican Republic Getaway

Enjoy a three night romantic getaway for two at the AI Sol Luxury Resort located in Cap Cana, a mere ten minutes from the Punta Cana International Airport. Enjoy all the privileges of the "All Under the Sun Program" which entitles you and your guest to meals and beverages at each of the four themed restaurants and five bars, as well as special activities, including special golf activities. The architecturally striking AI Sol property resides in a bright and lively village that features spacious, pastel-colored suites with sweeping marina views and designer furnishings. Restrictions apply on certain dates and reservation must be made with at least one month's notice; valid through December 20, 2015 (Cap Cana DR)

L21 CNN Breaking News with Jim Sciutto '88

Your Regian and three lucky pals will spend the afternoon at CNN Headquarters in Washington, DC as special guests of Emmy Award-winning CNN Chief National Security Correspondent and Regis '88 alum Jim Sciutto. After lunch with your host, Jim will escort you on a personal behind-the-scenes tour of the CNN headquarters including a visit to the control room where you will be introduced to renowned face of CNN, Wolf Blitzer, as well as other news anchors and correspondents on the set. After a photo session with your favorite CNN personalities, your Regian and his guests will have the honor of sitting in on a roundtable Q&A discussion on national security issues. Finally, your group will sit back in prime studio seats and watch a live CNN broadcast at 4 p.m. Aspiring Regian reporter and his pals can hit the road early morning or check the Amtrak schedule and plan on a truly special day. For four people on a mutually agreed upon date prior to December 31, 2015. Transportation and any lodging are the responsibility of the winner (Washington DC)

L22 Regis Class of 2015 "R" Autographed Photograph

This 18" x 24" matted and framed photograph of Regis Class of 2015 is extraordinary in that it is signed by each member of the graduating class. A wonderful keepsake that will conjure up memories of Regis for years to come

L23 Field of Dreams/MLB 2015 World Series Games 1 and 2

Make your baseball dreams come true with two tickets to Games 1 and 2 of the 2015 Fall Classic. Which teams will play for the championship this year? Will it be our hometown heroes the Mets or Yankees, or will you be traveling to Los Angeles, Chicago, or Boston? Watch the season unfold with World Series tickets already in your pocket! Root for your favorite team to reach the World Series knowing you'll be there to cheer them on for Games 1 and 2! L26 Religio - 2014

A 23 1/2" x 31 1/2" bas-relief woodcarving (basswood) recreating the carving adorning the Regis staircase by Ukrainian artist Serhly Karpenko. The Regis Religio, located on the first floor landing of the main staircase, is an artistic representation of Regis' pedagogical foundation and was installed at the time Regis was built. The Latin inscription on the base of the piece reads "Religio Ingeniorum Moderatrix et Altrix Scientiarum Parens et Magistra" (Religion: the Governess and Sustainer of the Arts, Mother and Directress of the Sciences). Religio has reminded Regians for over a century of the foundations of their Jesuit education. The Karpenko carving is an astonishing replica of the Regis "Religio"

L27 Ultimate Insider New York Knicks Broadcasting Experience with Mike Breen

Let your Regis student get a firsthand look at the broadcasting production of a Knicks game. The lucky winner will follow New York Knicks television play-by-play commentator and Regis '09, '15 parent Mike Breen through his pregame preparation during a 2015-2016 regular season game. One of the NBA's signature voices, this year marks Mike's 24th year calling Knicks games. He won Emmy Awards in 2007, 2009, and 2014. He has also called NFL, WNBA, college hoops, and five Olympic Games. At tip-off, the lucky student will join a friend or family member in the newly refurbished MSG Club Gold Seats (Section 118, Row 15, Seats 11 and 12) to enjoy the game. Perfect opportunity for your budding broadcaster to go behind the scenes at Madison Square Garden! Game date to be mutually agreed upon at the beginning of the 2015-2016 season (Madison Square Garden, NY NY)
